The image shows a promotional display for Mike Oldfield's album 'Let There Be Light'. The display is set against a dark, textured background. It features two album covers: the CD1 cover on the left, which is a glowing sphere with a figure, and the CD2 cover on the right, which is a blue-toned scene with figures. Below the covers, the name 'Mike Oldfield' is printed in large, bold letters. At the bottom, a list of features is provided.
